

Popular music - research and resources in the Nordic-Baltic region

International seminar in Tallinn, Estonia, 26-27 April 2018

Information about the venues

- The Tallinn University (Narva mnt 25, 27, 29) is located in the Centre, you can reach it on foot or drive a few stops by bus/tram: <http://www.tlu.ee/en/university/Campus/Getting-Here>

Map of the Campus: <http://www.tlu.ee/en/university/Campus>

- Maarjamäe Palace is accessible by buses No 1A, 8, 34A, 38 (leaving from a bus terminal under Viru Shopping Centre) and No 5 (leaving from behind Estonia Theatre on Pärnu Rd). The trip lasts for 10-15 min, destination stop: Maarjamäe. From the bus stop you should head up the stairs and enter the palace grounds.

Maarjamäe palace consists of two museums that are worth a visit during lunch break or after the presentations:

Branch of Estonian History Museum <http://www.ajaloomuuseum.ee/visiting/buildings/maarjamae-palace>

Film Museum <http://www.ajaloomuuseum.ee/visiting/buildings/filmmuseum>

- Public transport timetables and ticket information: <https://transport.tallinn.ee/#/en>

Single ticket from driver costs 2 EUR.