

ONLINE SHEET MUSIC LIBRARY

Welcome to the online sheet music library. You may use the library free of charge, you only need to download the free Scorch-plugin in your browser. This plug-in can be found at the Sibelius notation software website.

The online sheet music library is a part of e-concerthouse virtual library. The online sheet music library is maintained by OUAS library Information specialist Tiina Tolonen. In the present stage the library is based on the personal collection of lecturer Kari Kuosmanen, which consists of thousands of notes. This collection can not be published in its entirety for copyright reasons.

You may participate in developing the library by sending us your music. Copyrighted material will not be published without written consent from all parties involved. You may also request sheets to be edited by emailing us at library@e-concerthouse.com and return the sheets to the same address. We are grateful for your participation! Much like Wikipedia, we are based on voluntariness and no-cost access. (GNU Free Documentation License).

Collaboration with e-Concerthouse - Online Sheet Music Library

What is e-Concerthouse ?

- A classical music portal, which supports live-broadcasting from any location
- Website was published in February 2007 and version 4.0 released in 2014
- Live concerts for example from Finnish National Opera and Tampere Philharmonic Orchestra
- Auditions for opera roles, thesis concerts
- Works in co-operation with Helsingin Sanomat and Rondo Classic
- Lots of concerts in video archive
- Ilmari Mäenpää, CVO (ilmari@e-concerthouse.com)

<http://www.e-concerthouse.com>

Online sheet music library

- Works as part of e-Concerthouse and is a collaboration between Oulu UAS Library and Department of Media and Performing Arts at Oulu University of Applied Sciences
- People in charge: Information specialist Tiina Tolonen (administrative work and maintenance) and Kari Kuosmanen (notations)
- Technical implementation by Ilmari Mäenpää and Arte Povera LTD, Finland
- Search, download, listen and print sheet music free of charge and without registration

Kari Kuosmanen (11.3.1946 -)

- Diploma composer and teacher
- Student of Einojuhani Rautavaara and Aulis Sallinen
- Moved to Oulu in 1979 and has also been working at Oulu Conservatoire
- Has been writing music with Sibelius notation software since 1998
- Recorded music with Merja Wirkkala and Pekka Vapaavuori

Online sheet music library

- All notations are classified and indexed as in Finnish public and UAS libraries (PLC = Public Library Classification)
- Notations are made with Sibelius notation software and are in Scorch file format, allowing the transposal to more sufficient key
- Approximately 2500 notations, most of those are vocal music (Schubert, Schumann, Brahms etc.) The copyrights on most of the music pieces have already expired
- Includes also new music from Finnish composers who have assigned copyrights for this online sheet music library
- New notations are added continually

Why ?

- Kari Kuosmanen has dreamed a long time of a "musical Gutenberg project", a place where you can get any copyright-free classical music that you want
- Many requests from his musician friends, especially from singers and their accompanists
- Multiform studying and distance learning is increasing rapidly
- As Heikki Poroila have said, if one can use sheet music from a display, one might be in the forefront of progress. Transposed music is directly usable from the computer

Online sheet music library

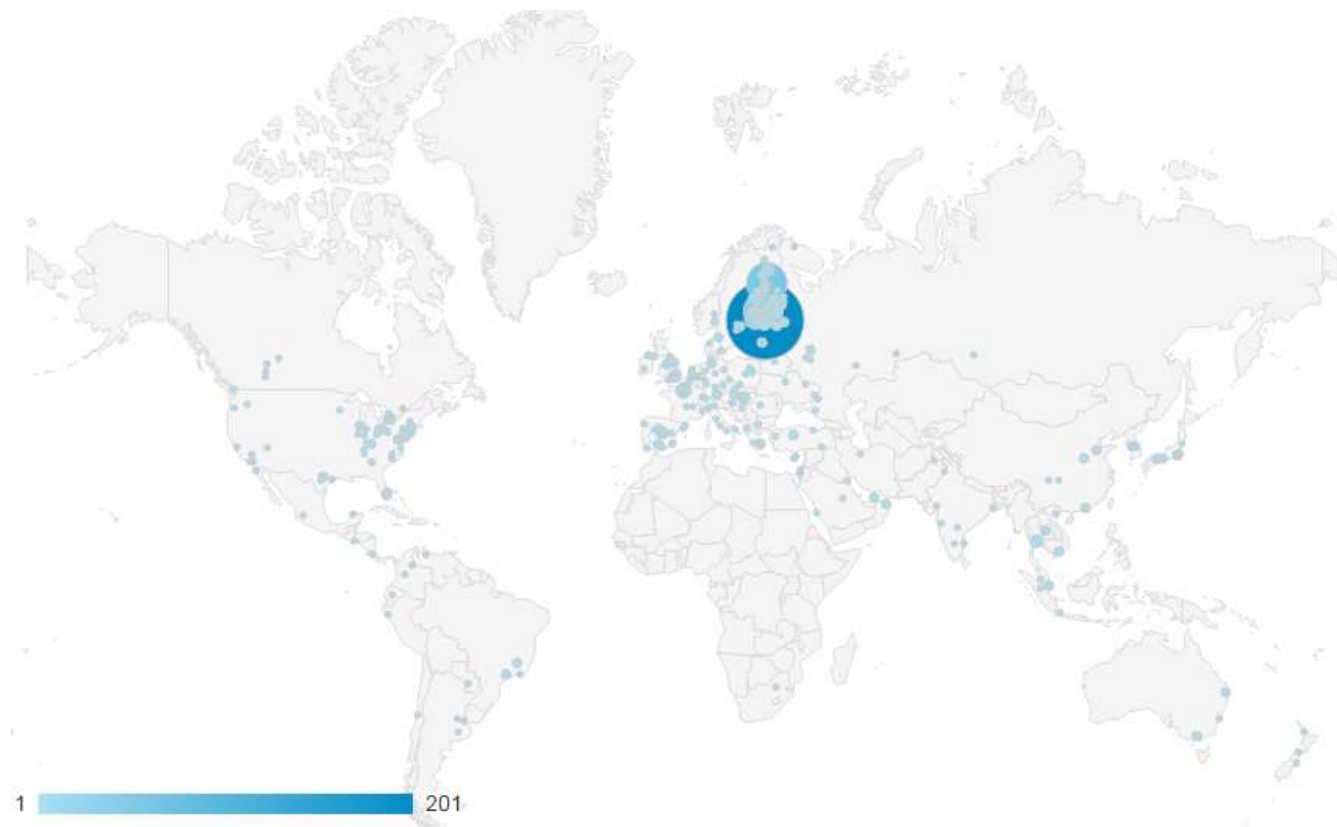

- Mainly done as voluntary work
- Non-profit service
- Everyone can participate in developing by sending their notations, preferably in Sibelius notation software format
